

01 NCAC 06B .0504      OBJECTIONS

Objection by an adjacent owner does not necessarily result in easement denial; however, their reasonable objections must be considered by the Division of State Property. Comments from all riparian owners and state and federal agencies will be considered by the Division of State Property in determining whether to recommend approval of granting an easement to fill.

History Note:      Authority G.S. 143-341(4); 146-6;
Eff. February 1, 1976;
Readopted Eff. February 27, 1979;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. July 22, 2018.