

10A NCAC 13J .0905 MULTIPLE PREMISES

If a person operates multiple agency premises:

- (1) the Department may conduct inspections at any or all of the premises and may issue a license to each of the premises based upon a sample inspection of any of the premises;
- (2) with 72 hours advance notice, the Department may request records from any of the premises necessary to ensure compliance with the rules of this Subchapter be brought to the site being inspected, including the portions of personnel records subject to review. For agencies for whom a business or government policy precludes the disclosure of employee evaluations, a statement signed by the employee's supervisor attesting to its completion shall be accepted.
- (3) the premises may share hands-on care staff or administrative staff, and may centralize the maintenance of records.
