

10A NCAC 14J .1514 SLIDING DOORS

- (a) Sliding doors shall be made of the same weight and quality of grating or plate as the confinement area fronts or wall in which they are installed.
- (b) Sliding doors shall be approximately two feet x six feet, three inches, and shall be hung from the top by a plate door carriage.
- (c) The door carriage shall have two hardened steel spindles on which will be mounted two needle-bearing or two S.K.F. or approved equal ball-bearing solid steel machined wheels.
- (d) The door carriage shall be enclosed in a covered box of the prescribed type.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 153A-220; 153A-221;
Eff. June 1, 1990;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. January 5, 2016.*