

10A NCAC 14J .1532 KEY CABINET

- (a) A secure key cabinet shall be provided as shown on the plans, and it shall be made of not less than 10-gauge open-hearth steel plate.
- (b) The door to the key cabinet shall be hung securely on two steel pin hinges and locked with a heavy multiple tumbler security-type deadlock.
- (c) The key cabinet shall have shelves, gun racks, and key hooks as required.

History Note: Authority G.S. 153A-220; 153A-221;
Eff. June 1, 1990;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. January 5, 2016.