

10A NCAC 27D .0102 SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION POLICY

- (a) Each client shall be free from threat or fear of unwarranted suspension or expulsion from the facility.
- (b) The governing body shall develop and implement policy for suspension or expelling a client from a service. The policy shall address the criteria to be used for an suspension, expulsion or other discharge not mutually agreed upon and shall establish documentation requirements that include:
 - (1) the specific time and conditions for resuming services following suspension;
 - (2) efforts by staff of the facility to identify an alternative service to meet the client's needs and designation of such service; and
 - (3) the discharge plan, if any.
