

12 NCAC 06A .0202 IMPLEMENTATION OF PURPOSE OF THE JUSTICE ACADEMY

- (a) The North Carolina Justice Academy develops and conducts courses throughout the state on topics that are identified as being needed. These courses will be of the highest quality within the resource limitations of the Justice Academy. These courses shall include all elements of the criminal justice system at all levels.
- (b) The North Carolina Justice Academy develops, publishes, and distributes educational and training materials such as newsletters, textbooks, programmed texts, video tapes, teaching outlines, student materials, notebooks, and other similar items for personnel in the criminal justice system.
- (c) The North Carolina Justice Academy coordinates and cooperates with the other criminal justice training agencies and institutions in North Carolina to combine resources and present wide, effective, quality training.
- (d) The North Carolina Justice Academy upon request, provides facilities and other resources for those local or state criminal justice agencies that have their own training staff and conduct their own training. This includes combining training staffs as well as other resources when needed to provide more effective training.
- (e) The North Carolina Justice Academy provides technical assistance to criminal justice and related personnel to assist in meeting educational training and operational needs.
