

10A NCAC 15 .1221      TERMINATION OF LICENSE

(a) Following any period of institutional control needed to meet the requirements found necessary under Rule .1214 of this Section, the custodial agency may apply for an amendment to terminate the license.

(b) This application shall be filed, and will be reviewed, in accordance with the provisions of Rule .1211 of this Section and Paragraph (a) of this Rule.

(c) A license will be terminated only when the agency finds:

- (1) that the institutional control requirements found necessary under Item (7) of Rule .1214 of this Section have been met; and
- (2) that any additional requirements resulting from new information developed during the institutional control period have been met, and that permanent monuments or markers warning against intrusion have been installed.
