

10A NCAC 15 .1602 IMPLEMENTATION

(a) If the requirements of this Section are more restrictive than a license or registration condition established prior to January 1, 1994, the licensee or registrant shall comply with this Section unless exempted by Paragraph (c) of this Rule.

(b) If any existing license or registration condition is more restrictive than a requirement in this Section, the licensee or registrant shall comply with such condition until there is a license or registration amendment or license or registration renewal that modifies or removes the condition.

(c) If a license or registration condition established prior to January 1, 1994 exempts a licensee or registrant from a requirement in this Section, the exemption shall remain in effect until there is a license or registration amendment or license or registration renewal that modifies or removes the condition.
