

10A NCAC 41H .0907 CORRECTIONS TO DELAYED BIRTH CERTIFICATES

- (a) Except for the year of birth, items on delayed birth certificates may be corrected in accordance with the procedures described in 10A NCAC 41H .0901 to .0903. The year of birth cannot be changed on a delayed birth certificate which was established from records submitted at the time of filing.
- (b) If the year of birth is disputed, the State Registrar may cancel the original delayed birth certificate and file a new one based on new evidence, all of which was established prior to the filing date of the first delayed certificate. The applicant may be required to present such proof directly to the State Registrar.
