

SECTION .0300 - DEFINITIONS

21 NCAC 160 .0301 CONSCIOUS SEDATION

"Conscious sedation" means the use of drugs for controlling pain or apprehension without rendering the patient unconscious.

History Note: Authority G.S. 90-29(b)(6); 90-48; 90-223;
Eff. July 16, 1980;
Amended Eff. May 1, 1989;
Amended Eff. April 1, 2016 (See S.L. 2016-31);
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. January 9, 2018.