21 NCAC 66 .0308 REINSTATEMENT AFTER REVOCATION

Any person whose license or registration has been suspended or revoked may apply for reinstatement without written examination subject to any terms and conditions as contained in the final agency decision issued by the Board upon revoking or suspending the person's license or registration. The Board, at its discretion, may conduct a fact-finding hearing to determine whether sufficient cause exists to justify, in the discretion of the Board, the reinstatement of the license or registration.
