   (1) No employee shall be required, as a condition of employment subject to N.C.G.S. Chapter 126 to enter into a contractual arrangement with any state agency as defined in 25 NCAC 01A .0103 for employment with that agency. No state agency may require, as a condition of employment, that an employee agree, in writing or otherwise, to a minimum specified length of employment.
   (2) No state agency may prohibit, as a condition of initial or continued employment, any employee from transferring to another state agency or university.
   (3) No state agency may require, as a condition of employment, that an employee agree, in writing or otherwise, that a payment be made to the employing agency if a minimum specified period of employment is not met.
   (4) No agency may require the repayment of the cost of job training required by the employing agency as a condition of continued employment.
(b) An agency that provides all or part of the cost of professional development seminars or other educational opportunities to employees that are not a requirement for the job and that are in excess of five thousand dollars ($5000) may condition the provision of agency funds upon agreement of the employee to repay the funds subject to the following conditions:
   (1) The employee is informed about the repayment provisions in advance,
   (2) The amount of time that the agency expects the employee to remain employed is clearly specified and does not exceed one year,
   (3) The prorated amount that the employee will have to repay for each month the employee leaves prior to the end of the term is specified in the agreement, and
   (4) The terms of the agreement are reduced to writing and the employee and the human resources director both sign the agreement.

SECTION .0500 - WORK SCHEDULE

25 NCAC 01C .0501  STANDARD WORKWEEK
The standard workweek for employees subject to the Personnel Act is 40 hours per week. The normal daily work schedule is five days per week, eight hours a day plus a meal period. Other schedules apply to part-time employees and some shift employees; agencies are responsible for determining the appropriate schedules for these employees. Because of the nature of the various state activities, some positions require a workweek other than five days. The normal daily work schedule may not apply to educational, hospital and similar institutions with schedules geared to round-the-clock service.

History Note:
Authority G.S. 126-4;
Eff. February 1, 1976;
Amended Eff. October 1, 1992; August 1, 1985; June 1, 1982; May 1, 1981;

25 NCAC 01C .0502 VARIABLE WORK SCHEDULE

Agencies may choose to utilize a variable work schedule, that allows employees to choose a daily work schedule and meal period which, subject to agency necessities, is most compatible with their personal needs. Supervisors are responsible for arranging operating procedures that are consistent with the needs of the agency and the public it serves, and at the same time can accommodate, as far as possible, the employee's choice of daily work schedules within the established limits. If any adjustments of employee work schedules are necessary, this should be done as fairly and equitably as possible.

History Note:
Authority G.S. 126-4;
Eff. February 1, 1976;
Amended Eff. October 1, 1992; August 1, 1985; February 1, 1983;

25 NCAC 01C .0503 IMPLEMENTATION

(a) Each new employee shall be given detailed information about the variable work schedule and given the opportunity to select the schedule preferred prior to reporting for work. Work schedules are to be associated with individuals and not with position, with the exception that there may be positions which must be filled on some predetermined schedule. In these exceptional cases, applicants shall be informed of this predetermined schedule prior to any offer and acceptance of employment.

(b) The employee and his/her supervisor shall agree upon the schedule to be followed, consistent with the needs of the agency. The meal period may be scheduled within the normal work hours to meet the needs of the employee and the working unit but may not be used to shorten the workday. A bona fide meal period is a span of at least 30 consecutive minutes during which an employee is completely relieved of duty. It is not counted as hours worked. Any so-called "meal period" of less than 30 consecutive minutes must be considered as hours worked for employees who are non-exempt as defined by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

(c) Each supervisor shall compile a record of the work schedules for all subordinates.

(d) Agency administrators shall be responsible for providing adequate supervision for each work unit during the hours employees are scheduled to work. This can be accomplished by sharing or by delegation of authority of supervisor.

History Note:
Authority G.S. 126-4;
Eff. February 1, 1976;
Amended Eff. October 1, 1992; November 1, 1988; August 1, 1985; February 1, 1983;

25 NCAC 01C .0504 LIMITATIONS

(a) An employee who arrives later than scheduled, may be permitted by his or her supervisor to make up the deficit of working hours by working that much longer at the end of the workday if this is consistent with the work need of the agency. Otherwise, the tardiness shall be charged to the employee's leave in accordance with 25 NCAC 01E .0207. Supervisors shall be responsible for taking action to correct any abuse or misuse of this privilege which may include deductions from the employee's pay or a disciplinary action in accordance with 25 NCAC 01J .0604.

(b) If an employee reports to work early he or she may be permitted by his or her supervisor to begin work at that time and leave at a correspondingly early hour if this is consistent with the work need of the agency. Otherwise, the employee shall wait in a designated area away from the work station.
(c) If an employee leaves work early without permission from his or her supervisor, the time shall be deducted from the employee's pay or may be charged to the employee's leave account.

(d) An employee may not work later than scheduled unless permitted by his or her supervisor if this is consistent with the work need of the agency.

History Note: Authority G.S. 126-4; Eff. February 1, 1976; Amended Eff. October 1, 1992; November 1, 1988; August 1, 1985; February 1, 1983; Readopted Eff. April 1, 2016.

25 NCAC 01C .0507 HOURS OF WORK DUE TO TIME CHANGE

(a) When the time is changed from Eastern Standard Time to Daylight Savings Time, employees working during this interval only work seven hours rather than eight hours. The employees must be held accountable for the hour that no work is performed. The time may be charged to: vacation leave, or the employee may be allowed to make up the time within a reasonable length of time if it can be worked out satisfactorily with the immediate supervisor.

(b) When the time changes from Daylight Savings Time to Eastern Standard Time, employees on duty at this change actually work a nine-hour shift rather than the usual eight-hour shift. The state, under the overtime pay policy, must compensate for this additional hour. In cases where the employees work in excess of 40 hours for the week, this must be compensated for at one and one-half times the regular rate during the pay period.

History Note: Authority G.S. 126-4; Eff. February 1, 1976; Amended Eff. August 1, 1985; February 1, 1983; Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. October 28, 2014.

SECTION .0600 - COMPETITIVE SERVICE
SECTION .0700 - SECONDARY EMPLOYMENT

The employment responsibilities to the state are primary for any employee working full-time; any other employment in which that person chooses to engage is secondary. An employee shall have approval from the agency head before engaging in any secondary employment. The purpose of this approval procedure is to determine that the secondary employment does not have an adverse effect on the primary employment and does not create a conflict of interest. The rules in this Section for secondary employment apply to all employment not covered by the policy on Dual Employment in the North Carolina State Budget Manual.

25 NCAC 01C .0702  AGENCY RESPONSIBILITY
(a) Secondary employment shall not be permitted when it would:
   (1) create either directly or indirectly a conflict of interest with the primary employment;
   (2) impair in any way the employee’s ability to perform all expected duties, to make decisions and carry out in an objective fashion the responsibilities of the employee’s position.
(b) If the secondary employment has any impact on or may create any possibility of conflict with State operations, the Secondary Employment Form must be approved by the State Human Resources Director in conjunction with the Board of Ethics.
(c) Each agency shall establish its own specific criteria for approval of secondary employment based on work situation needs. Established criteria shall not be inconsistent with 25 NCAC 01C .0701 and .0702.
(d) Each agency shall use a Secondary Employment Form that is consistent with the model provided by the Office of State Human Resources.

Amended Eff. October 1, 2004, January 1, 2004;

25 NCAC 01C .0703 EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY
(a) The employee shall complete a Secondary Employment Form for any employment that is not covered by the Dual Employment Policy in the North Carolina State Budget Manual.
(b) The employee shall update the Secondary Employment Form whenever there is any change in status or annually whichever occurs first.

SECTION .1000 - SEPARATION

25 NCAC 01C .1001   DEFINED
Separation from state service occurs when an employee leaves the payroll for reasons listed in this Section or upon death. Policies stated in this Section, except for leave provisions, do not apply to employees in positions designated exempt pursuant to G.S. 126-5(c).

25 NCAC 01C .1002   RESIGNATION
An employee may terminate his services with the state by submitting a resignation to the appointing authority. Employees shall be paid in a lump sum for accumulated vacation leave.

25 NCAC 01C .1003   RETIREMENT
An employee may retire when he is eligible and applies for immediate retirement benefits from the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System or the Law Enforcement Officers' Benefit and Retirement Fund. Employees are paid in a lump sum for accumulated vacation leave.

25 NCAC 01C .1004   REDUCTION IN FORCE
(a) A State government agency may separate an employee whenever it is necessary due to shortage of funds or work, abolishment of a position, or other material change in duties or organization. Retention of employees in classes affected shall be based on systematic consideration of all the following factors: type of appointment, relative efficiency, actual or potential adverse impact on the diversity of the workforce, and length of service. No temporary or probationary State employee as defined in G.S. 126-1.1 shall be retained where an employee with a permanent appointment shall be separated in the same or related class.
(b) Agency Responsibilities:

(1) Each agency shall develop written guidelines for reduction in force that meets its particular needs with potential reductions being considered on a fair and systematic basis in accordance with factors listed in Paragraph (a) of this Rule. Each agency's guidelines shall be reviewed and approved by the Office of State Human Resources and filed with the Office of State Human Resources as a public record; and

(2) The employing agency shall notify the employee in writing of separation as soon as possible and in any case not less than 30 calendar days prior to the effective date of separation. The written notification shall include the reasons for the reduction in force, expected date of separation, the employee's eligibility for priority reemployment consideration, applicable appeal rights, and other benefits described in the agency's reduction in force guidelines.

c) Appeals: An employee may appeal the reduction in force separation in accordance with 25 NCAC 01H .0901.

d) The agency shall analyze any application of its reduction in force guidelines to determine its impact on equal employment opportunity in accordance with the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission's (EEOC) Uniform Guidelines on Employee Selection Procedures in the code of federal regulations at 29 C.F.R. part 1607, section 6A, which is hereby incorporated by reference including any subsequent amendments and editions. These guidelines are available for free on the EEOC website at http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/regulations/index.cfm.

e) Severance salary continuation shall be administered in accordance with 25 NCAC 01D .2700.

25 NCAC 01C .1006 VOLUNTARY RESIGNATION WITHOUT NOTICE
An employee who is absent from work and does not contact the employer for three consecutive scheduled workdays may be separated from employment as a voluntary resignation. The separation creates no right of grievance or appeal pursuant to the State Human Resources Act (G.S. Chapter 126). A factor to be considered when determining whether the employee should be deemed to have voluntarily resigned is the employee's culpability in failing to contact his or her employer.

25 NCAC 01C .1007  SEPARATION
(a) An employee may be separated when:
   (1) the employee remains unavailable for work after all applicable leave credits and leave benefits have been exhausted and agency management does not grant leave without pay, as defined in 25 NCAC 01E .1101, if the employee is unable to return to all of the position's essential duties as set forth in the employee's job description or designated work schedule due to a medical condition or the vagueness of a medical prognosis, and the employee and agency are unable to reach agreement on a return to work arrangement that meets both the needs of the agency and the employee's condition;
   (2) notwithstanding any unexhausted applicable leave credits and leave benefits, the employee is unable to return to all of the position's essential duties as set forth in the employee's job description or designated work schedule due to a court order, due to a loss of required credentials, due to a loss of other required certification, or due to other extenuating circumstances that renders the employee unable to perform the position's essential duties as set forth in the employee's job description or designated work schedule, and the employee and the agency are unable to reach agreement on a return to work arrangement that meets both the needs of the agency and the employee's situation; or
   (3) notwithstanding any unexhausted applicable leave credits and leave benefits, when an employee is on workers' compensation leave of absence, and the employee is unable to return to all of the position's essential duties as set forth in the employee's job description or designated work schedule due to a medical condition or the vagueness of a medical prognosis, and the employee and the agency are unable to reach agreement on a return to work arrangement that meets both the needs of the agency and the employee's medical condition, a separation may occur on the earliest of the following dates:
      (A) after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement for the work related injury for which the employee is on workers' compensation leave of absence and the agency is unable to accommodate the employee's permanent work restrictions related to such injury; or
      (B) 12 months after the date of the employee's work related injury.
(b) The employing agency shall send the employee written notice of the proposed separation in a Pre Separation Letter. The letter shall include the employing agency's planned date of separation, the efforts undertaken to avoid separation, and why the efforts were unsuccessful. This letter shall be sent to the employee at least 15 calendar days prior to the employing agency's planned date of separation. This letter shall include a deadline for the employee to respond in writing no less than five calendar days prior to the employing agency's planned date of separation.
(c) If the agency and employee are unable to agree on terms of continued employment or the employee does not respond to the Pre Separation letter, the employing agency shall send the employee written notice in a Letter of Separation. The letter shall be sent no earlier than 20 calendar days after the Pre Separation letter is sent to the employee. The Letter of Separation shall state the actual date of separation, specific reasons for the separation and set forth the employee's right of appeal. Such a separation shall not be considered a disciplinary dismissal as described in G.S. 126-34.02 or G.S. 126-35. It is an involuntary separation and may be grieved or appealed. The burden of proof on the agency in the event of a grievance is not to demonstrate just cause as that term exists in G.S. 126-34.02 or G.S. 126-35. Rather, the agency's burden shall be to prove that the employee was unavailable, that efforts were undertaken to avoid separation, and why the efforts were unsuccessful.
(d) "Applicable leave credits and benefits" is defined as the sick, vacation, bonus, incentive, and compensatory leave that the employee may earn, but does not include short-term or long-term disability.
