

(a) Employees may be dismissed for a current incident of unacceptable personal conduct without any prior active disciplinary actions. For unacceptable personal conduct, any level of discipline may be imposed without warning.

- (1) conduct on or off the job that is related to the employee's job duties and responsibilities for which no reasonable person should expect to receive prior warning;
- (2) conduct that constitutes violation of State or federal law;
- (3) conviction of a felony that is detrimental to or impacts the employee's service to the agency;
- (4) the willful violation of work rules;
- (5) conduct unbecoming an employee that is detrimental to the agency's service;
- (6) the abuse of client(s), patient(s), or a person(s) over whom the employee has charge or to whom the employee has a responsibility, or of an animal owned or in the custody of the agency;
- (7) falsification of an employment application or other employment documentation;
- (8) insubordination that is the willful failure or refusal to carry out an order from an authorized supervisor;
- (9) absence from work after all authorized leave credits and benefits have been exhausted; or
- (10) failure to maintain or obtain credentials or certifications.

(d) Dismissals for unacceptable personal conduct require written notification to the employee. The written notification shall include specific reasons for the dismissal and notice of the employee's right of appeal.
